Bonds Major Source of Investment Funds

BONDS KEY TO ECONOMIC PROGRESS

As I enter my second year as General Chairman of the Ottawa 1969 Israel Bond Drive and after my recent thrilling trip to Israel it is obvious that Israel Bonds are a primary source of the investment capital which has made possible Israel's remarkable economic progress during the past two decades. They have provided the resources to bring the country forward from a relatively primitive economy to one which is comparable to the economy of the smaller countries in Western Europe.

To-day, eighteen years after the first Bonds were sold, it can be said that no other young developing country has ever been so successful in the sale of any security outside its own borders. Without Israel Bonds there would be no National Water Project that has made so much of the Negev green. Without Israel Bonds there would be no Merchant Marine with two million tons of shipping, no thriving El Al Airline, no vast housing programs and new electric power stations. Above all, without Israel Bonds, Israel would not have had the economic strength to defend herself against attack and to ward off recurrent threats to her existence.

So in thanking the complete Board of Officers of the local Bond Organization for their unstinted support, may I wish all of you and yours a healthy and happy New Year. Let us rededicate ourselves so that the results of the 1969 Bond Drive will surpass even those of the record established in 1968.

We should also remember that Israel has repaid our Bonds and our confidence not only with profit and performance, but with an extra dividend of pride and dignity for the Jews and the Jewish name.

ABE PALMER

Abe Palmer, General Chairman of the 1969 State of Israel Bond Drive and Mrs. Morton Taller, Chairman of the Women's Division, have placed special emphasis on this year's Bond Drive as the major source of investment funds to maintain the pace of Israel's development and strengthen its economy at the time when an unprecedented proportion of the country's fiscal resources must be allocated to cope with heightened tensions in the area.

They have asked for the full co-operation of the community to ensure even better results than the record breaking year of 1968. Plans outlined for the 1969 Bond Drive have already witnessed a number of highly successful parlor meetings and testimonial receptions. Special mention is being made of a Testimonial Luncheon in tribute to all Ottawa Jewish Women's Organizations which is being held on October 8 next in the Agudath Israel Auditorium.

On November 9, the Sixth Annual Ambassador's Ball will take place. This event has become the major social event of the season and further publicity on these two functions will be issued later.

Israel's leaders have pointed out that the situation of abnormal danger and abnormal needs makes the 1969 Israel Bond program a very crucial factor in Israel's search for peace and economic security and have asked for the fullest support of the 1969 Bond effort in the twenty-first anniversary of the State of Israel.

ISRAEL FACES FUTURE WITH HOPE

As they search for understanding and make sacrifices for peace, the people of Israel face the future with a new determination to maintain the strength of their economy as the backbone of their ability to survive. Tempered for over twenty years in the crucible of crisis they have learned to live daily with danger. But no amount of courage can balance a budget or restore the vital development resources being drained off by the demands of the continuing crisis.

It is sad indeed, that Israel should stand alone to-day in the family of nations because she seeks peace with justice, because she seeks the recognition and the rights that are granted as a matter of course to all other nations. There cannot be unrestrained joy on Israel's Twenty-First Birthday — not when Jews on Israel's borders live in the shadow of daily terror. Not when children must sleep in underground bunkers.

My recent visit to Israel has more than convinced me that the purchase of Israel Bonds is a demonstration of faith and confidence in the people of Israel and especially in their ability to build a nation of economic opportunity and freedom. I am confident that the Ottawa Women's Division, which I am proud to represent as Chairman for the second year, and whom I sincerely thank for their devoted service, will not be found wanting in their efforts to make the 1969 Bond Drive an outstanding success.

Finally, my very best wishes to you and yours for a healthy and happy New Year.

MRS. MORTON TALLER

New President Hopes To Meet Challenges Posed By Change

Michael Greenberg, newly-elected President of the Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir (Jewish Community Council of Ottawa) believes that greater participation and flexibility will be required to meet the challenges posed by changing times and conditions.

Mr. Greenberg assumed the responsibilities of the senior post in the Jewish community upon his election at the 29th Annual General Meeting of the organization on July 28. He succeeded Jules Loeb, who was named Honorary President.

In his acceptance speech, Mr. Greenberg said:

"It is with all humility that I take on the office of President of the Vaad Ha'Ir. I appreciate the enormity of the job there is to be done, especially in a world where our way of life is in a constant state of change and where social institutions must be made flexible enough to meet these changes.

"The achievements of any organization must mark a qualitative advance in the life of the community. It is my expectation that your incoming executive will be able to serve the community so as to preserve the existing traditions and provide for greater participation, so that we can benefit from the knowledge of many and enlarge our visions.

"I am particularly pleased with the executive that I will be privileged to work with because each person has experience in various fields of community service. With these men as a nucleus I believe the Vaad will be able to meet the challenge of a questioning new generation.

"We who will serve as your executive for the next year are the inheritors of a community that has fewer internal problems than most communities have. I am grateful to those who have held office in the past for the creation of this situation and express my appreciation of the type of leadership that has helped to keep this community in the state of unity in which we now find ourselves."

Officers who will serve with Mr. Greenberg during the coming year are Jacie C. Horwitz, Q.C., Abraham Palmer and David Alexandor, Vice-Presidents; Rudy Appotive, Treasurer; William Grossman and Sol Sherman, Honorary Secretaries. Hy Hochberg is Executive Director.

Kol Nidre Sunday at Sunset

Yom Kippur, the solemn Day of Atonement will be ushered in at sunset on Sunday evening, September 21. Culminating ten days of prayer and penitence, this holiday is characterized by a twenty-four hour period of total fasting and abstinence from material pursuits. This emphasizes man's essence as a spiritual and holy being and his great need to live in accord with God's commandments.

According to Jewish tradition, Moses descended from Mount Sinai with the tablets of the Ten Commandments on the tenth day of Tishre (the Hebrew date upon which Yom Kippur falls) and brought the people the good news that the sin of the golden calf had been forgiven; therefore, the tenth of Tishre was ordained as a day of forgiveness for all time to come.

This day set aside for penitence and moral regeneration is the only one for which Jewish law prescribes fasting (the most intense form of devotion and contrition). On that day, the Rabbis state, people resemble the angels, without human wants, without sins, linked together in love and peace.

Religious services on Sunday evening will be held in all Synagogues beginning at 6:45 p.m. Services on Monday commence at 8:00 a.m. and continue through until sunset that day when the holiday is concluded with a long single blast of the shofar.

Yiddish Group Meets Tuesdays

A number of members of our community have expressed a desire to form a Yiddish speaking group which will meet at the Centre on Tuesday evenings at 8:00 o'clock beginning September 23. At the first meeting, the format of the program will be discussed. If you are interested, please drop in at the opening session.

Message from the Ambassador of Israel

On the eve of the New Year I extend heartiest wishes for a Happy New Year to the Jewish community of Canada. Let us hope and pray that the coming year will bring the blessings of peace to Israel and her people.

Ours is the age of dedication, of sacrifice, and of achievement. We have come to Israel as pioneers because we are convinced that the Jewish people must re-establish its own sovereignty in its ancient homeland if it wishes to maintain its identity and its destiny. Without it our people would be lost.

We have always known that this was not going to be an easy task and that it entailed a heavy burden and many sacrifices. We have always known that our efforts should never cease.

The cost has been heavy, but the result is glorious. We have paid dearly for every achievement. We have done it because we have no other choice. But we have been also able to sustain ourselves because we know that the Jewish people all over the world is in partnership with us, in word and in deed, at these critical times. I believe that despite all outward appearances, peace is not only inevitable but that indeed it is within our grasp. Militarily Israel has never been stronger, her borders more defensible, and the spirit of her people more determined than it is today. If we do not lose heart; if we find the necessary strength within ourselves; if we — the Jewish people as a whole — persevere in our efforts then our future will be assured.

In Israel's darkest hour it was gratifying to know that many Canadians shared our sentiments and destiny, and showed their confidence and involvement by participating in the development of Israel through, amongst other things, their purchase of the State of Israel Bonds.

We must be able to carry the very heavy investment in defence and in maintaining our capability to deter our enemies from going to war with us. But if they miscalculate we must be able to defeat them. We must be able to repel the military initiatives of Egypt, Jordan, Iraq and Syria. We must be able to withstand and to defeat the terrorist campaign. At the same time we must carry on with the development, industrial and cultural, of our country and I know that the friends of Israel in Canada will continue to give us their support during the coming year as they have in the past.

Shana Tova.

SETTING THE STAGE FOR THE 1969 BOND DRIVE

A record attendance at the First Joint Organizational Meeting of the Jewish Community Centre on July 22 inaugurated the Ottawa 1969 Bond Drive. Seen addressing the large gathering is Alex Betcherman, Honorary Chairman, State of Israel Bonds. Seated left to right are Harold N. Pearl, City Manager; Mrs. M. Ralph Berke, Immediate Past Chairman, Women's Division; M. A. Appel, National Campaign Director; Emanuel Shimoni, Counsellor, Embassy of Israel; Abe Palmer, General Chairman; Mrs. Marton Toller, Chairman, Women's Division; Jacie C. Horwitz, Q.C., Vice-President, Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir; Mrs. Max Cohen, Honorary Chairman, Women's Division; Nordau Vineberg, Immediate Past General Chairman; John Greenberg, Vice-Chairman; and Mervin Mirsky, Vice-Chairman.

Succot Observed Sept. 27 through Oct. 4

The Festival of Succot begins on the evening of the 15th day of Tishre, corresponding this year to Friday evening, September 26. It is observed for nine days of which the first two and the last two days are full holidays and the intervening days half holidays.

Referred to also as the Festival of Booths or Tabernacles, Succot is a reminder of the forty years wandering of the children of Israel in the wilderness after their deliverance from Egyptian bondage. During that time they were compelled to live in tents or building booths wherever they stopped.

On Shemini Atzeret (the Eighth Day of Solemn Assembly), the Scroll of Ecclesiastes is read to remind people of the transient character of life, memorial services for the departed are recited and a prayer is offered so that the earth may produce bountiful crops next year.

The ninth day, Simchat Torah is the most joyous day of the festival as it marks the annual completion and commencement of the reading of the Law in the Synagogue.

J.N.F. To Honour Louis Achbar Tuesday Evening, December 2

A. Louis Achbar, prominent Zionist, civic and Jewish communal leader is to be the guest of honour at the Annual Negev Dinner of the Jewish National Fund, according to an announcement by Hugo Leventhal, Chairman of the J.N.F. Council and Alex Betcherman, Chairman of the Nominating Committee.

Mr. Achbar is to be cited for "his exemplary devotion over the course of many years to the welfare of the Jewish and general community; to the Zionist movement, and to the upbuilding of the State of Israel."

The guest of honour has had a long and distinguished record of service. He was Chairman of the Ottawa Talmud Torah Board for over twelve years including the period which brought the Hillel Academy into being. A former General Chairman of the Combined Israel and Overseas Appeal, he has also served as General Chairman, State of Israel Bonds, as Chairman of the Ottawa Histadrut Campaign and as a Vice-President of the Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir.

Currently, he holds the post of National Vice-President of the Histadrut Campaign in Canada. For many years, he was President of the Industry and Commerce Division of the Hull Chamber of Commerce and still retains an active interest in its work.

The testimonial dinner will take place on Tuesday evening, December 2 at the Jewish Community Centre. Details of the program will be announced shortly. The proceeds will be used to establish a project which will link Mr. Achbar's name with the soil of Israel in perpetuity.

In view of the wide interest which the dinner will generate, organizations and individuals are asked to reserve the date and refrain from scheduling any other functions that night.

Expect 1969 U.J.A. Campaign To Reach Figure of $850,000

Norman Zagerman, General Chairman of the 1969 United Jewish Appeal and Israel Emergency Campaign has reported that to date, the campaign has reached $844,000 in contributions. The final figure is expected to exceed $850,000.

This represents the highest amount ever raised by the United Jewish Appeal in Ottawa with the exception of 1967, when unprecedented heights were reached throughout the world in response to the Six Day War.

The continuing emergency evoked a heartwarming response on the part of many donors who equalled and even surpassed 1967 levels. Although the 1969 Campaign fell short of its original objective, which was to match the 1967 total, the appeal succeeded in raising $125,000 more than last year. Campaign leaders regard these results as an excellent effort in light of the economic climate and other factors.

The community's appreciation to Mr. Zagerman and his energetic committee was expressed at the

NORMAN ZAGERMAN

Annual Meeting of the Vaad held July 28.

Proceeds of the United Jewish Appeal and Israel Emergency Campaign are used to support health and welfare services in Israel, for rescue and rehabilitation throughout the world and for Jewish educational and recreational services in Ottawa.

Centre Expanding Scope of Its Musical Activities Program

The appointment of Mrs. Bertram Loeb as Chairman of a new Music Committee for the Jewish Community Centre has been announced by Dr. Nathan Schechter, Chairman of the Centre's overall Adult Program Committee.

"Mrs. Loeb's background, interests and administrative skills make her ideally suited for the task," said Dr. Schechter, "and we thank her for assuming this responsibility."

Mrs. Loeb is a member of the board of the Ottawa Civic Symphony and Vice-Chairman of its Women's Committee; a member of the Boards of the Ottawa Music Club and the Ottawa Opera and a Patroness of the Ottawa Choral Society.

Creation of a specific Music Committee to deal with musical programming is part of the Centre's desire to stimulate interest in the cultural arts and to make its facilities available for their creative expression.

This goal has gained added impetus with the opening of the National Arts Centre and the arrival in Ottawa of many new and talented individuals. Several have expressed a desire to help the Jewish Centre develop its potential and elevate its standards.

Only one preliminary meeting of the committee in formation has been held thus far. It was marked by enthusiasm and a decision to proceed with strengthening and enlarging the existing Choral Group; developing a music appreciation program; establishing closer liaison with groups already playing together; and laying the foundation for a Symphonic Pops Orchestra under the direction of Armand Weisbord.

MRS. BERTRAM LOEB

Auditions for the orchestra will take place on Wednesday, Oct. 22 at 8:00 p.m., in the Main Auditorium. Professional experience is not necessary. Anyone interested is asked to leave his name at the Centre, 232-7306.

Mrs. Loeb and the Centre program staff will be happy to hear from anyone who would like to participate on the committee or be involved in any of its current and future plans.

Registration Opens For Two Classes in Basic Painting

The Jewish Community Centre is pleased to announce the opening of registration for classes in Basic Painting and Art Appreciation by Elaine Waese, a newcomer to Ottawa, who has had good success with similar classes in other cities.

Mrs. Waese is a graduate of the Ontario College of Art in Toronto and continued her studies at the New School for Social Research in New York under Minoru Kawabata. She has taught art in Toronto, Hamilton and most recently in Boston.

Potential students can enroll in either an evening or afternoon class for the ten-week course. Classes are two and a half hours in length and will be given on Monday nights from 7:30 to 10:00 beginning October 6; and on Wednesday afternoons from 1:30 to 4:00, beginning October 8.

Fees are $15. for Centre members; $20. for others. Materials are extra. Registration closes October 2.

Mrs. Waese sees her class as an introduction to the basic principles and concepts in art; instruction in the use of materials; and the opportunity to paint.

Cocktail Party For Singles October 9

A number of successful "singles" groups function in other cities with the object of introducing new faces to the existing scene. An attempt to develop a similar program in Ottawa is now underway.

An informal evening with music and refreshments has been arranged for Thursday evening, October 9, at 8:00 o'clock in the Music Room of the Jewish Community Centre. Young women 21 and over and young men 23 and over are invited to come and to bring their friends.

The planning group is meeting on Thursday evening, September 25. If you would like to lend a hand contact Ed Rosenthal at 232-7306.

New York Trip For Teens December 21-26

Forty teenagers will be leaving Ottawa December 21 for a five-day holiday in New York.

Highlights of the trip will be meeting teenagers from various Centres and YMHA's in the area. Basketball games and socials are among the exciting features planned. Some of the sights which will be visited are the United Nations, Statue of Liberty, Greenwich Village and Madison Square Garden.

The cost will be approximately $70. Watch for more details.

Israel Dance Troupe Forming

A number of adults have approached the Centre to start an Israel Dance Group. Performances will be held throughout the year including Israel Independence Day. If you can spend one evening a week and wish to participate, give Ed Rosenthal a call at 232-7306.

Scuba Diving For Teens

Erie Haltrecht will direct an intensive 10-week course in skin and scuba diving. The three-hour sessions will be given on Monday evenings beginning October 20.

Erie feels that any teen who has completed the intermediate Red Cross Swimming Course is eligible. The course fee which include the diving equipment rental is $18 members; $25 non-members.

Etrogim For Succot Festival

As a service to the community, the Ottawa Vaad Ha'ir has again made arrangements to supply Synagogues and private individuals with Israeli etrogim at cost price.

Anyone who wishes to purchase an etrog for Succot is asked to call the Office of the Vaad Ha'ir at 232-7306.

U. of O. Prof Directs Men's Noon-Hour Fitness Class

A highly-trained expert in physical education has once again been retained by the Jewish Community Centre as supervisor of its 12:30 to 1:00 noon-hour fitness class for businessmen and professionals.

On Wednesdays and Fridays, and possibly Sundays, the program will be handled by Dr. James Thoden, professor of physical education at the University of Ottawa. He heads the university's research work in cardio-pulmonary physiology and teaches exercise physiology and training physiology.

On Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, the class is given by Uri Tal, the Centre's instructor in health and physical education. The five-day a week program begins Tuesday, September 23, but it is never too late to start since the exercises are based on the individual's own progression from point to point.

Any number of men who have been following the program will attest to its effectiveness. The more often you exercise, the better you will look and feel. A minimum of two to three times a week is recommended for good results.

The Centre invites you to come and try the class without obligation.

Sunday Funday Begins October 19 Enriched Program For 6's to 12's

The Centre's popular Sunday afternoon program for six to twelve years old gets underway on October 19 at 2:00 o'clock.

The basic format of other years has been changed to offer youngsters from all over the city a qualitative and enjoyable experience.

In the past, youngsters who found it difficult to travel to the Centre after school, could not enroll in the classes offered after school. This year classes in ballet, Orff method in teaching music, recorder, guitar and french in an informal setting, will be included in the Sunday afternoon program. Such favourites as arts and crafts, photography, gym and judo will also be offered as will Brownies, Cubs, Guides and Scouts. The last Sunday of every month will be devoted to tripping, movies, etc.

Parents who wish to enroll their children in Sunday Funday must contact Ed Rosenthal at the Centre as soon as possible. Mr. Rosenthal would like to meet as many children and parents as he can so that the youngsters can choose the activities which will have the most meaning for them.

The program begins on Sunday, October 19 at 2:00 o'clock and will continue each Sunday thereafter throughout the 1968-1969 season. Children should arrive shortly before 2:00. The program ends at 4:45 p.m.

New Hillel Academy High School

The Hillel Academy officially opened their High School this term with a ninth grade class. Plans are to add a grade each year until the full four-year High School programme is complete. Sessions run from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and are held at the Jewish Community Centre.

Initial reactions of the attending students as well as their parents are enthusiastically glowing. The school will be visited shortly by the Ontario Department of Education following their approval of the school's opening.

Newcomers Tea Sunday, Oct. 26

The Reception Committee for Newcomers to the Jewish community will hold its Fall Tea at the home of Mrs. Samuel Caplan, 371 Hinton Ave. on Sunday, October 26 at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. M. Ralph Berke, Chairman, will receive the guests.

Over the past twelve years, the Reception Committee which is under the sponsorship of the Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir, has welcomed hundreds of new residents to the Ottawa Jewish Community. This tea which is held twice annually makes it possible for newcomers to meet each other and the members of the committee.

If you know of any new residents, please call Mrs. Berke at 729-5176.

City-Wide Gift & Book Fair Set for November 23, 24, 25

Mrs. Herbert Zagerman, Chairman of the Library Committee of the Jewish Community Centre reports that plans are well-advanced for the Second Annual Chanukah Gift and Book Fair to be held Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, November 23, 24 and 25. Mrs. Louis Rasminsky is Chairman of the Planning Committee.

The three-day Fair, arranged to mark Jewish Book Month, is once again being jointly sponsored by the Library Committee and the Sisterhoods of Beth Shalom, Agudath Israel, Machzikei Adas, B'nai Jacob, Temple Israel and Young Israel.

Hundreds of books, religious articles, records, toys, games and gift items are being assembled for display and sale in time for Chanukah giving. Further details will be announced shortly.

Read, Write and Speak Hebrew In 24 Sessions Starting Oct. 20

The excellent results achieved by Mrs. Yael Lefkovich with the many people who have studied Hebrew with her for the past two years has encouraged the Jewish Community Centre to continue classes for the coming term. Mrs. Lefkovich is a fifth generation Sabra who taught the language at the University of Manitoba prior to coming to Ottawa.

The following classes are being offered this year:

Mondays, beginning October 20

- Introductory Hebrew — for those who can neither read nor write. 7:00-8:15 p.m.
- Hebrew I — for those who are slightly beyond the beginners level and can read and who possess a basic vocabulary. 8:15-9:30 p.m.

This is a wonderful opportunity to learn to read, write and speak modern Hebrew in twenty-four concentrated lessons lasting one and one quarter hours each. It should have great appeal for parents of Hebrew school children and others who recognize the importance of knowing the language.

Mrs. Lefkovich uses a combination of the Ulpan system taught in Israel and tested methods she has developed over the years. Using her system, it is possible to learn the Hebrew alphabet in a week and to have a vocabulary of at least 500 words in twenty-four lessons.

The course fee is $30 for Centre members; $35 for non-members. You can register by calling 232-7306 before October 11.

Two Great Bands Will Appear at Registration Dance, October 19

The Teen-Young Adult Annual Registration Dance on Sunday evening, October 19 will feature two of the most popular musical aggregations in the Ottawa area.

The Renaissance and the MRQ have been booked to provide continuous music from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Dress will be sports jackets for the boys and skirts for the girls.

The Renaissance recently played to a packed house at the Centre. The MRQ is one of Ottawa's most popular bands.

Members and those who register in advance will be admitted free of charge. Non-members may purchase tickets for $2.00 per person.

The Planning Committee for the SECOND ANNUAL CHANUKAH GIFT AND BOOK FAIR

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, November 23, 24, 25

wishes to order as comprehensive a list of books as possible and invites you to suggest titles you feel would be suitable for

- Bar Mitzvah, Bat Mitzvah and birthday gifts.
- Home libraries.
- Presentations to Jewish libraries in the community in honour of or in memory of relatives and friends.
- Gifts.

I would like to see the following books available for purchase at the Second Annual Chanukah Gift and Book Fair:

Title	Author

Fill in and mail to Planning Committee, Chanukah Gift and Book Fair, 151 Chapel St., Ottawa 2.

MRS. BRUNBERG IS HONOURED

Theatre Group in Rehearsal for Broadway Comedy Productions

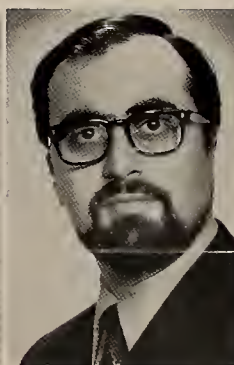

The Jewish Community Centre Theatre Guild's first production is now in rehearsal. The comedy, "Who Was That Lady I Saw You With" will be presented on Saturday and Sunday, January 17 and 18 and promises to be a great success.

Writer-Director Bill Polsky heads the production team. A Montreal boy, who grew up in amateur theatre, he wrote, produced and directed many plays and comedies before coming to Ottawa.

His most recent success was the hilarious comedy "Bar-Mitzvah Bride" which he did for the B'nai Brith Women last spring. Mr. Polsky has accepted responsibility as the Centre's Director of Theatre Arts.

This new phase in the growth of the Community Centre offers an outlet for many people willing to be involved in this project. It is hoped to expand the concept of the Theatre Guild to include members of the Jewish community from teens to over-sixties. (Thus, in our way, helping to bridge "The Gap"). The future will see improvements in the Main Auditorium — workshops will be formed to include lighting, sound, costumes, make-up — all this, of course, depending on the success we have.

January 17 and 18 is the "Big-Weekend", but before the curtain can rise the theatre guild needs active participants both onstage and backstage. Mrs. Herbert (Dena) Gosewicz, Chairman of the Theatre Guild, will be happy to hear from anyone interested in the many creative and/or administrative aspects of the theatre. Please phone her at 733-0618.

BILL POLSKY

MRS. HERBERT GOSEWICH

Formation of the Theatre Group is part of the Centre's overall concern with the promotion of the performing arts.

Play Bridge in Six Easy Lessons

Earl Lefebvre, the professional bridge expert, will give a six-week basic course in bridge for beginners and beginning players at the Centre starting Sunday evening, October 19 and continuing through November 23.

Classes are three hours in length, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Mr. Lefebvre likes this concentrated approach and he has switched all his classes to this format.

The course fee is $15 for members; $18 for non-members.

Call Ed Rosenthal at 232-7306 to register. Registration closes October 10.
